Event registrations

Before registering for an event organized by the Multisport Experience, please read the information presented here and the registration will be made if we have your consent regarding the proposed data processing policy.

Who we are

Association Sport Club Multisport Experience, based in Arad, Cathedral Square, no. 6, ap. 13, CIF 31021976, as personal data operator, according to Regulation 679/2016 of the European Parliament and of the Council of the European Union of April 27 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data ("GDPR").

What data do we collect from you by registering

We collect the data you enter: name, first name, address, email, telephone, date of birth. Optionally you can enter: occupation, competitions in which you participated, the tutor, the represented structure, the educational institution (in the case of students, students). The registration system collects from you and the date / time you registered. Also, during the public event we will collect representative photos that we will publish on the social networks in which we activate, send them for dissemination and upload them to the website of the organization or other platforms that are related to the events organized by us. These data will be processed taking into account the General Regulation on the Protection of Personal Data and will be carried out on the basis of your consent. Minors can only register with the consent of their parents.

Why we collect this information

We need the information we require for your participation in the event you are attending. Based on this data we can contact you by phone or email to inform you about the event you have registered for. The data collected by us are not used for the elaboration of profiles, the persons registered receiving information related to the event in the general way.

How we use the data collected by registering for the event

The information you enter is used for the general running of the event, as follows: drawing up and displaying the list of participants, displaying the list of results, validating entries, handing over event numbers and chips, where appropriate, preparing digital timing systems, where appropriate, preparing the numbers associated with the registered persons, reporting the progress of the event to funders, public institutions and private structures, the use of accounting, legal or financial services, upon the justified request made by the public structures involved in running the event, directly or indirectly, other operations necessary for the development of the event in good condition for the event and for archiving the event.

Use of cookies

We use cookie technology either directly or with the support of our suppliers and partners. This allows us to collect relevant statistics regarding site navigation, access to messages sent to you, connection to links provided, etc. We use Google Analytics to view information collected from visitors to our sites. This information allows us to draw relevant conclusions about improving our online business. The setting of cookies can be done from the browser following the instructions on the page <http://www.maratonarad.ro/2017/ro/1-9-data.html>.

Duration of processing

Your agreement and use of the data is valid until the consent is withdrawn. Withdrawal of the agreement does not produce retroactive effects.

What rights do you have?

Once registered, you can exercise your rights specified by Regulation 2016/679 by sending an email to us, as an operator, at experientamultisport@gmail.com. Your rights are: the right of access to personal data, the right to rectify data, the right to delete processed data (the right to be forgotten), the right to request the restriction of the processing of your personal data (the right to oppose), the right of data portability, the right to the opposition and the right to address a complaint to the National Supervisory Authority for the Processing of Personal Data, if you consider that your rights have been violated.

Withdrawal of consent

You may withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal data by sending an email to experientamultisport@gmail.com. The data provided by you will be collected and used up to the time of withdrawal of the consent, and then archived.

Who has access to the data sent, when transferred outside the EU / EEA area
